THE QUEENSLAND FOOD BOWL

MAREEBA MANGOES

Taste the road less travelled with a Mareeba Mango, part of the fertile food bowl of the tropics, just one hour's drive from Cairns. Take the foodie journey through the Atherton Tablelands to sample 70% of Australia's coffee crops and a fruit wine or two.

BUNDABERG RUM

Bundaberg, the southern point of the Great Barrier Reef, is famous for cold drinks and warm welcomes. Bundaberg Rum is proudly made from red-earth sugar cane, which gives the tippie its distinct flavour and unique character.

FRASER COAST PINEAPPLES

One of nature's sweetest treats, these golden pineapples have been hand-picked in Maryborough, the historical heart of the Fraser Coast region. Two-years in the making, these pineapples are the perfect partner to bring some tropical flavour to your palette.

FRASER ISLE SPANNER CRAB

Firm, succulent and super sweet, Fraser Isle Spanner Crabs are harvested in the pristine waters surrounding K'gari (Fraser Island). This world heritage wonder is one not to miss, promising equal parts nature and adventure.

MORETON BAY BUG

This iconic Queensland catch calls Brisbane's Moreton Bay home. Queensland's capital, Brisbane, is a cosmopolitan hub for arts, culture and dining, heavy on laid back charm.

SUNSHINE COAST MACADAMIA

The fresh macadamia you're enjoying are sourced from the Glasshouse Mountains, part of the lush hinterland behind the Sunshine Coast. Road trip between villages perched along the hinterland and take your taste buds on a real journey.

MOOLOOLABA PRAWNS

Mooloolaba on the Sunshine Coast is the best spot to find fresh-off-the-trawler prawns and local reef fish. Swim, eat, and unwind in this paradise.
